THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR

FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1870.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE MAN.

A telegram from Hillsboro' brings us the painful intelligence of the death of Dennis Heartt, Esq., which occurred in that town this morning at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Heartt was born in Connecticutt, in the year 1793, and, consequently, was in his 87th year. He afterward went to Philadelphia, where he served his time as Printer.

He came to North Carolina over half a century ago, and in 1820, commenced the publication of the "Hillsboro' Recorder," which he continued to edit and publish up to within about twelve months ago.

Coming into active life soon after the Revolution, he imbibed the political principles of the Father of his country, and of the elder Adams, and to these he remained firm to the end of life.

He loved to labor, and was a most indefatigable worker.

His love to God; love of truth, and love of work, make up the eulogy of this venerable man.

We have known Mr. Heartt from our earliest youth, and we have never known a purer or better man. His was a heart that harbored no deception; his is a tongue that knew no guile, and his was an integrity that would not bend nor deviate.

We have spoken of his industry: we have seen him standing on the extreme verge of human existence, disdaining the usual relaxation of age. We have seen him, since he has passed four score years, write his editorials, set them in type, make up his form, and even work off his paper at the press, and then make up his mails.

In his long career of public journalist, he gave dignity, and was an ornament to the profession.

His moral qualifications were excellent and without reproach. He was punctual to every duty and observed strictly his obligations to his fellow men.

As a christian he was punctual in the discharge of his religious duties, and in attendance on the services of the sanctuary, and the exercises of the Sabbath School, his regularity was exceeded by few, if any, even of the Clergy. In short, he was possessed of the qualities that command the respect and esteem of men, and of the love of those with whom he was connected in the more intimate relations of life.

He leaves three children and a number of grand children to mourn their loss. But they will not sorrow alone; all who knew him will sorrow with them, in their grief for one whose public and private life and virtues may be held up as a model to mankind.

SUDDEN CONVERSION.

Great latitude and allowance should be made for men in forming and changing their political opinions and associations.

Opinions should be formed only after calm and mature reflection and consideration. When formed, they should not be changed too often, too suddenly or with too much violence. If too sudden, the change will shock old associates and friends too much, and beyond what nature could endure.

We mentioned more than a year ago, that there were nineteen lawyers in North Carolina who were standing like Lord Stanly at Athelstone, awaiting the issue of the contest.

In the great battle of Bosworth, between Richard and Henry, Lord Stanly was very undecided as to which side he should take. He wrote a letter to each commander, promising his co-operation. With 7,000 troops, he took his stand at Athelstone, a position as accessible to Richard as to Henry, intending to join the winning side. With what scorn men read this page in history!

Five of our Stanlys, who have stood at Athelstone for the last two years, midway between the Radical and Conservative camps, have gone at last to the Radicals, in shame and confusion of face. They left their fourteen comrades in great doubt and perplexity, as to whether they should march to the right or the left.

We need not name the five Stanlys, for the names at once occur to the reader as Messrs. Phillips, Clingman, Badger, Hargrove and Erwin. All Confederate soldiers, except the first named, who was a Confederate orator, speaking for volunteers.

The four last named have always been regarded as disciples and followers of Stanly. They have been inconsistent, inconsiderate, hasty and violent in their political changes, to such so as to have forfeited the confidence of their friends long ago.

When Mr. Badger deserted Holden's camp four years ago, "our beloved" held up both hands, and with agony of heart and bitterness of despair, exclaimed in public, "Oh, Richard! Richard!! Richard!!!"

Richard then appeared in the camp of his fathers, and to make atonement for his treachery, he overshot the mark.—Standing in the Court House, with Ariel in one hand and the Bible in the other, he argued to prove that the negro had no soul, and was only a mere brute. Now he proposes to canvass the district for James Harris (negro) for Congress. May we not all join with the Governor in his anguish of heart and bitterness of spirit and exclaim, Oh, Richard! Richard!! Richard!!! We have no space here to speak of Messrs. Erwin and Hargrove.

The march of Mr. Phillips to the Radical camp has been a matter of profound regret and astonishment to many good men. Mr. Phillips was thought to be man of good conscience, and certainly had the character among his intimate friends, as a man of personal and political integrity. We think Mr. Phillips by his present course, has sadly damaged that character. He has had opportunities of knowing, beyond the possibility of doubt, that our State government was corrupt in each and every department, Executive, Judicial and Legislative. He knows the State has been plundered and robbed, and the people trod and spit upon by profligate and corrupt adventurers. With a full and thorough knowledge of Radical profligacy and corruption, Mr. Phillips joins them, and is conducted into their presence to accept a nomination for office, by a notorious scoundrel and rogue.

HOLDEN RADICAL CONVENTION.

THURSDAY, May 12th 1870.

The Convention met at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by W. W. Morgan.

Delegates from the following Counties complained that although a list of delegates from each county had been handed to the reporter of the Standard no notice of them appeared in the published list in that paper, New Hanover, Cumberland, Montgomery, Halifax, Craven, Robeson and a portion of Lenoir.

Col. Arnold, (white,) moved that C. L. Cobb, (white,) the hero of Cuban rights, address the convention. (It did not require much persuasion to bring him out, for he was already on the stage practicing positions before he was fairly called on, he spouted awhile and concluded by saying, that it was not a matter of choice with him whether a man was white or black, these damnable distinctions must be done away with.)

Mr. W. R. Richardson, (white,) moved that the Convention proceed to go into the election of Attorney General, and put in nomination L. P. Olds, (white,) the present incumbent and made a touching appeal (so far as he knew how) to the convention, to sustain the nomination and endorse the selection of the Governor.

Mr. Olds, (white) came forward and declined the honor of a nomination.—(Sour grapes) Spoke at considerable length in denunciation of Ku Klux as he termed the Conservative party, and closed by saying that he would support cordially any candidate this Convention or any other republican meeting might nominate, he was a Republican and expected to die one, and appealed to Republicans to stand up manfully for the cause and they would come out of the coming contest victors and as pure as refined gold.

The President suspended the pending motion until the Committe on Resolutions had reported.

Mr. Abbott, (white) from the Committee on Resolutions presented a platform and series of resolutions for the consideration of the Convention.

Mr. Ingram, (white) arose to address the Convention, desired to know if the allusions made in the resolutions in reference to the late General Assembly, were intended as a reflection on that body.

(Voices, Yes it was, yes, yes, yes.)

A general cry was made for the question, poor old Ingram was hushed, and the platform and resolutions were adopted with only one dissenting voice.

Friday Jones obtained the floor and urged the claims of Judge Olds, for the office of Attorney General. Mr. Olds' name had been canvassed before the Republican party at another time when he was a candidate for the office of Judge, and through his (Friday's) influence, was defeated, because he had not also on his hand, the Republicans did not like to risk any candidate when there was any doubt or uncertainty about his true position, and another man was chosen in his stead. But since that time Judge Olds had shown his hand, he had filled the bill, whenever there was a Republican meeting, night or day, he was sure to be on hand to lend his aid and council, he had been thoroughly tried and was a fire proof Republican.—He should now use his influence to secure his nomination to the office of Attorney General, he has been fully tried, is a true Republican, and will "Bring therefore fruits meet for repentance."

A. H. Galloway raised the point that Judge Olds had declined the nomination, and the discussion of his claims before the Convention was not in order.

The President (john pool, white,) decided that the whole proceedings in reference to this subject was out of order, that the consideration of the merits of any particular candidate could not properly come before the Convention until it had first been decided to go into an election, and that was the question now pending. The question was put and carried unanimously.

W. R. Richardson, white, refused to withdraw the name of Judge Olds, and made another affecting and tender appeal in his behalf, and that of the administration. (No tears were shed unless it was done behind the scenery on the stage.)

Jacob Bowman, white, nominated S. F. Phillips, white, and urged the merits of his candidate in a long and labored speech.—(Applause.)

J. C. L. Harris, white, seconded the nomination and appealed to the colored delegates to stand by S. F. Phillips, who was among the first in the State to advocate the right of colored men to testify in Courts.—(We are of the opinion that the Hon. B. F. Moore was the first, and among the loud mouthed Radicals in that Convention, there were some who made themselves prominent in denouncing his course.)

W. R. Richardson, white, said, at the urgent request of the Wake county delegation (behind the scenes) he would withdraw the name of the Hon. L. D. Olds, though he did so with great reluctance.

J. C. L. Harris, white, moved that the nomination of Mr. Phillips be declared unanimous by acclamation.

The vote was put and the President (john pool, white,) declared it to be unanimous, though the Reporter heard distinctly, as well as others present, several noes.

Loud and continued calls for Phillips were made, but he was missing not having up to that date fallen entirely over.

T. R. Caldwell, (white,) said that Mr. Phillips had informed him that he did not wish to appear in the Hall as it might be construed by some that he was exhibiting an over anxiety for the office, he was anxious that some republican should be elected, but he did not desire his name to be used in opposition to Mr. Olds, (white,) Badger, (white,) (Rotating Dick,) or any other republican nominee, these were the reasons that kept him from the Hall, and moved that a committee be appointed to wait on Mr. Phillips and inform him of his nomination, which motion prevailed.

The President designated as the Committee Messrs T. R. Caldwell, (white,) A. H. Galloway (Big Yaller) A. J. Jones, (Cotton White) and W. F. Henderson, (white windy Billy.)

During the absence of the Committee it was announced that Swain a carpet bagger from Illinois was present, and that it would please the Convention to hear from him.—Cries for Swain, but he could not be seen any where.

The President stated that if Mr. Swain was present it would afford the Convention much pleasure to hear from him, when lo! standing at his elbow was Little Bank the very mysteriously from his home and friends, but for the sake of others, we forbear, and throw the mantle of charity over the past, but for his speech, here it is verbatim as delivered from the stand.

Mr. President and Friends:—I am glad to say that I am originally from North Carolina and am now a carpet-bagger from Illinois. (Applause.) I love you all. (Applause.) I commanded a brigade during the late war in the United States army, and did good service. (Applause.) You have made some nominations here to-day, that I have no confidence in, and I would not trust them any further than I could throw a "bull by the tail;" but it is your business, you may vote as you please or think best; I am not interested; I do not live in North Carolina now. Gentlemen, God bless you!

The Committee accompanied by Mr. Phillips entered the hall amid deafening applause.

He was introduced to the audience by Mr. Victor Barringer, (white,) and proceeded to address them, in substance as follows:

Gentlemen:—I come before you for the purpose of accepting the nomination you have just tendered me; and I thank you for the compliment. The Attorney Generalship of North Carolina is an office which I feel I had no right to compete for and I should not have accepted the honor you have conferred upon me, by nominating me as your candidate to fill so important a position, if I had had a competitor a ("republican") whose claims to your favor were greater than mine.

I have not heretofore been a republican, nor have I been a member of any party for 10 years. Although no republican I have been a very careful observer of public affairs since the surrender. Early after the surrender it was my purpose to co-operate as far as I might be able in the reconstruction of the State and to my mind, the only favorable plan of reconstruction was suggested or announced by the President and which was sanctioned at least by a portion of his cabinet, I thought then it was the wisest council to follow, but I was led into error, later I was convinced that the proper dictatorial power in relation to this great work was the Congress of the United States (applause.)

As a lawyer he never believed that any legal technicality or quibble of the law would stop reconstruction, and he saw that the assumption of the right to offer a policy for reconstruction by the Executive, was usurpation. (Applause.) He thought it was but right to say, that while he maintained that Congress was the ruling power in these matters, yet he may have doubted the expediency of some of its measures, though in the main he endorsed them, and with these convictions he did not hesitate to act with the Republican party. (Long and continued applause.)

So far as the past was concerned, although blunders may have been committed and there had been, yet they were generally of minor importance and so far as the great questions and principles of the party were concerned no blunders had been committed.—(Applause.)

In relation to that class who have not heretofore been considered citizens he thought it was the general sentiment of the people of North Carolina, that is so far as the measures relating to them were concerned, that it was best as it is and that there was no disposition to disturb it.

He insisted that the Republican party was the party of the poor man, and urged Republicans to have an eye to taxation, as its burthens were laid heavier on that class of people than any other. Lawyers and merchants were taxed, but they put it in their bills and the poor men had no bills to put it in, &c.

J. W. Hood moved that the President appoint a Committee of five from each Congressional District to act as Executive Committees, which was adopted.

Gen. A. Rutherford, white, offered a resolution relating to representation, which was discussed at considerable length and finally, on motion of T. R. Caldwell, was rejected.

ROTATING DICK.

R. C. Badger, white, was called for and responded to the call in a speech of some length, very extreme, (of course, young convert,) he closed by saying he would prove his devotion to the Republican party in the coming campaign, as he intended to urge the claims of his friend Jim Harris, throughout this Congressional District.—(Applause, long and continued.)

BIG INJUN.

G. Z French, white, made a long and conciliatory speech and endeavored to explain away the indiscretions of his leader (big yaller) which was received with applause and three cheers and a tiger for the New Hanover delegation, Sam. Phillips and the Republican party.

The Convention adjourned to meet at 4 o'clock. They met, and the remainder of the day was spent in abusing their enemies, Joe Turner and the SENTINEL, and they adjourned sine die, but paraded the streets until near day, making night hideous with their fiendish yells. Let us have peace.

CELEBRATION AT CHAPEL HILL.

The ladies at Chapel Hill having issued an invitation to their fellow citizens to meet on the 10th inst., in the village graveyard, and assist in doing honor to the memories of the Confederate soldiers who lie buried there, at 4 o'clock that afternoon it appeared as if the whole village had obeyed the summons, a more general turn out of the community we have never seen. We thought it a very interesting spectacle—the ladies and little children all bearing wreaths, bouquets and crosses in such profusion that one would have thought every garden in the place must have been stripped. The assembly moved into the centre of the cemetery and formed a semi-circle around the Rev. Mr. Cunniggim of the Methodist Church, who, after making a few appropriate and very interesting remarks, gave out a hymn, which all joined in singing, and then offered a prayer. Our good friend and neighbor Mr. Jones Watson, the grave of whose son Thomas Low, killed at the battle of Chickamauga, lay near, then advanced and gave us an informal and short address conceived, in the best spirit and full of touching reminiscences of the war and its sufferings. At the close, Mr. Cunniggim stepped forward with a very handsome wreath and cross made entirely of the laurel flower and leaf, that now adorns certain well known localities around Chapel Hill, and said that these were dedicated to the memories of the gallant boys of our town, who went out to return no more, but lay where they fell in unknown graves, but not less honored and mourned for. These decorations were hung on the branches of the trees that overhung the speaker, and the assembly then dispersed to adorn the graves of the nine of our Confederate soldiers whose remains lie among those of their kindred. It was a pleasant hour and not an ill spent one that thus united the hearts of the people of Chapel Hill in firmer bonds of sympathy and a common regret. "The outward tokens of tenderness by which affection seeks to perpetuate itself are indeed unavailing for the object, but are very effectual for softening the heart and exalting the soul."

"If the head of Lee's army is at Martinsburg and the tail of it on the plank road between Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville, the animal must be pretty slim somewhere. Couldn't you break him?

A. LINCOLN."

The following notice appeared upon the west end of a country meeting house: Anybody sticking bills against this church will be prosecuted according to law or any other nuisance."

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1870.

Thos. N. Ramsay, the Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

New Ads.—Court notice from Watauga. Valuable land for sale in Wake.

Upchurch & Dodd have Timothy hay.

W. C. Stronach & Co. have Hechler sausage.

Let see the announcement of Mrs. Beasley, of new goods in her line. We have seen some of them, and think them not only beautiful but at reasonable prices.

In a hastily written notice yesterday of Mr T. B Kingsbury's proposed canvassing of Virginia in the interest of the Brooklyn Life Insurance Company, (a strictly first class association,) we misspelt his name. This is the more singular, as he formerly contributed so many graceful articles to the editorial columns of the Sentinal.

In publishing the proceedings of a public meeting, recently held in Patterson Township, Alamance county, we inadvertently omitted to state that Mr. T. G. McLean was recommended as a proper candidate for Register of Deeds for the county.

Excursion.—The Sabbath School connected with the M. E. Church of this city, contemplate making an excursion to Hillsboro', on Tuesday next. Arrangements we learn, have been made with the Railroad authorities and the necessary funds secured for the purpose, and the participants will take with them supplies for a picnic dinner on the occasion.

Invited guests or others going along, will have to pay their fare, unless by previous understanding, a different arrangement be made.

A Naked Bird.—The Radical District Convention, on the 10th inst., plucked the tail feathers from the Granville kildee, and left him a naked bird. We must think that the rejection of John Reigland, as delegate, was a premeditated blow at the aspirations of the kildee, for the native eloquence and political sagacity of that renowned politician, was so well known and so sorely dreaded, that it became necessary to rule him out, to prevent the catastrophe of sending the Granville bird to the place where cadetships are an article of profitable traffic.

A Pleasant Morning.—We don't know when we have had a more pleasant time than we had this morning. At a little after sunrise, we left the city in a buggy with our friend, Prof. Palmer, of the D. and D. Institute, for a morning ride to the old Milburnie Paper Mills. Everything along the road looked fresh and spring-like, the birds were singing, the cattle were wending their way to the wild pastures, laborers were hitching up their teams for the field, and everywhere where life and animation.

There is a great deal of first rate capital lying profitless and running to waste at the old Millburnie paper mills.

We stood on the bank and watched the fishermen drag the seine in the "shad hole," until they had taken enough for us both a dinner, and then returned to the city, without material encroaching on the day's duties.

The farms along the route present greater evidences of intelligent cultivation than the same farms did when we traveled over the same road, some twelve years ago, and we have no doubt that many now living will see the splendid water power of the Neuse, at the point, converted into much greater utility than running a saw and a grist mill. So mote it be.

We are under thanks to Messrs. Pepper and O'Connor for some hard crabs and for a good many other favors.

These gentleman keep a first class Restaurant and always keep on hand every delicacy of the season, which they serve up at reasonable prices in the best style. We recommend their delicious Turtle Soup to families, as a dish that cannot fail to give satisfaction.

Fine Beef and Lamb.—Ben. Kirkham will have, at his stall, near the new Market, to-morrow (Saturday) morning, some very fine stall fed Beef and choice Lamb and Mutton. His hours will be from 4 to 9 o'clock, A. M., and from 4 to 11 o'clock, P. M. Those desiring something unusually nice and inviting will do well to call upon him.

The next annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of this State, will meet in Warrenton, on the fourth Wednesday in May next.

Dr. A. J. Stone, of Nahunta, accidentally shot himself in the leg on Saturday last, inflicting a very painful wound.

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor:—I see that I am published as one of the delegates from Chatham, to the Radical District Convention to meet in Raleigh on the 10th inst. I am not a delegate—I shall not be in the Convention, neither will I support its nomination.—There has been no meeting held in Chatham to appoint delegates to said Convention. The whole thing was assumed by Jno. A. McDonald, who used my name without any authority. I have no political connection with that gentleman, nor do I expect to have.

Yours respectfully,

JAMES PACE.

For the Sentinel.

A CARD.

Durhams, N. C. May 12, 1870.

Mr. Editor:—I have been informed by a friend that my name appeared in the list of delegates to the R publican Convention at Raleigh. I wish to say that it was unauthorized by me, as I am not, never have been, nor, ever expect to be, identified with that party.

Respectfully,

J. A. McMANNEN.

SENATOR ABBOTT.

This white-livered Jacobin and coward, from New Hampshire, spoke, on Thursday night, to a crowd of colored leaguers, in front of the Yarborough House.

This was the first time we ever heard a carpet bagger make a public speech. He is a very indifferent speaker, and seemed to be constantly in want of words to express his ideas, if he really had any.

To him "truth is stranger than fiction;" he has no more regard for it than Captain Kidd had for human life.

He was shameless enough, in his speech on Thursday night, to attribute the $26,000,000 Railroad debt of the State to the Conservative party.

He must be greatly wanting in character at home, in New Hampshire, for the papers of that State advertise him as failing to pay his hotel and bar bills. But mean, cowardly and contemptible as he may be, we think better of him than we do of Victor, Rodman, Pool, Settle, Dick and Moore, who honor such a first class coward and scoundrel in preference to such men as Bragg, Graham, Geo. Davis, Vance, and even Phillips, before he so recently turned an Abbott man.

APOLOGETIC.

We don't often make apologies, because we seldom make mistakes, but we owe one now, to the Public Treasurer, for saying in yesterday's Sentinel, that he went in with the Governor, at Pepper's back door, for a drink.

But it was not the Treasurer; and even if it had been, he may go in and out at Pepper's as much as he pleases, and we shall not publish him. It is the Governor and his son Joe, that we are endeavoring to reform and break from the grog shop.

We thought we had broken the Governor, but, it seems, we have broken him only from going in at the front door.

It was the Governor's Secretary instead of the Treasurer, that went in, and we think it a shame for the Governor to be thus misleading the young man.

While we have peace, let us have sobriety.

The Torch Light Procession last night was a rather lame affair. There were some thirty or forty lights, carried by the colored fire Company of the city, attended by one or two hundred colored folks, men, women and children. The general enthusiasm didn't reach more than 60, Fahrenheit, and that of white Republicans was below zero, judging from the fact that they were ashamed of being seen in the procession.

They went to the Yarborough House, the National Hotel, Governor Holden's and Mr. Phillips', where they heard speeches from Abbott, the Governor, the new candidate for Attorney General and others. They also went to James Harris', where they found "Rotating Dick," perhaps trying to "come Dewcese" over the new nominee for Congress. He made them a speech, but not having a copy of Ariel along, didn't attempt to prove to them that they had no souls.

We don't know where else they went, or who else they had speeches from.

Soldierly Courtesy.—In our report of proceedings of the Ladies' Memorial Association, we did not mention the fact, because we were not then aware of it, that Col. Frank, commanding the U. S. troops at this post, ordered the flag of the garrison lowered to half mast, in honor of the occasion. This was a courtesy the more to be appreciated, because of the contrast it presents to the action of some officer at Arlington, on a similar occasion, last year.—But the latter we would forget, hoping it may never be repeated, while to Col. Frank, we would tender our thanks for the evidence he thus gave of sympathy, not in the late strife, or any question involved in it, but in the holy feelings which prompt all to honor the memory of the brave.

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor;—I am under the necessity of writing you a few lines which I wish you to publish in your Daily and Weekly. My barn was set on fire on last Sunday morning, at half past 2 o'clock. It was discovered by my wife, and I ran out to save my horses. When I got to the barn, I thought I would try to put out the fire first, and went round the barn for that purpose.—There were five of the Holly Springs league and two other negroes, the last from near Middle Creek, lying about thirty steps from the barn. They commenced firing at me and continued it until after I had put out the fire. They then ran off in the direction of Holly Springs. I think they must have shot at least twenty times, and several of the shots and two minnie balls hit the side of the barn.

I am aware of who five of them are; they are negroes belonging to the Holly Springs league. It may seem strange to your readers that I do not take out a writ and prosecute them; but it would be of no use. I might prosecute them and lose two or three weeks attending Court, pay my own expenses, and convict them—what would be the consequence? Why, they are leaguers and Governor Holden would be sitting back ready to pardon them after conviction; he would do it, before Greasy Sam could take a drink, as he did Bill Scattie, convicted of stealing Wyatt Holleman's mule.

I think we are in a pretty predicament, when a man is to be shot at, and have his property burnt for attending to his own business, which I always do unless they bother me or mine, and then it is all equal; we both take care of ourselves the best we can.

I think it hard to have to pay taxes to keep up a government and then be shot for trying to protect what I have made.

Friends and fellow-citizens, I warn you to be on the alert, and always go prepared, and not do as I did, when my barn was set on fire, when I went out without my gun.

I felt sure they had left after setting my barn on fire, but they were then waiting, and if I had had my gun, I could have killed a part of them. I will do a little better next time.

I will add but one thing more, and that is, if they want to shoot again, let them shoot, for my life is insured; and if they want to burn, let them burn, for my property is insured.

Yours,

R. C. BRANCH.

Note.—The above communication contained a number of "cuss words," but we so arranged it as to leave them out.

We advise our friend not to follow the example of the Governor in the use of profane language.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 12.—Revenue to-day $580,000.

The President signed the bill limiting Treasury Agents to 58.

The Star says, "The Senate Committee on Pacific Railroads have agreed to report in favor of a Southern Pacific railroad from Marshal, Texas by the way of El Paso to San Diego in California. Gen. Fremont's Road is to be allowed to connect with the above named Road at El Paso, but he is to receive no grants of lands beyond El Paso."

The Ways and Means Committee heard Mr. Bowles of Bowles, Bro. & Co., of Paris, in favor of the 4 per cent bonds.

The army bill as passed, omits some two hundred and fifty officers from drawing two salaries.

Morton said during the debate it was a blow at the administration.

Commissioner Parker has received an official letter from Texas, containing accounts of raids by the Comanches and Kiowas, and the capturing of women and children.

Instructions have been sent to the Indian Agents throughout the Southern Superintendency, to give these matters strict attention, and impress the Indians with the dissatisfaction of the government.

House.—During the morning hour, the bill from the Select Committee to revise the navigation and commercial interests of the United States, was discussed.

The balance of the session was devoted to the consideration of the tariff bill. The paragraph taxing cod type was stricken out by a vote of 65 to 67. The paragraph taxing live animals 20 per cent, was increased to 30 per cent. A proviso was added by which emigrant's teams, not exceeding one wagon and two animals for every family, will be admitted duty free.

Senate.—The report of the Conference Committee for the sale of the Hot Springs, Arkansas, was adopted.

The army bill was resumed. The amendment repealing laws forbidding retired officers holding civil offices was defeated. The bill finally passed, amended as follows: "Army reduced to 30,000 men, and active and retired officers forbidden from holding any civil office." The bill goes to the House for concurrence.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER:
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

Phalon's "Vitalia" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and colorless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

The Vitalia is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

PURELY MUTUAL. DIVIDENDS PAYABLE AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management of, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the Brooklyn Life.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD !!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!
EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 9th 1865.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

Testimonials without number from citizens of this, as well as those of other States might be published, but the above is sufficient. Any person having the Right can make 8 to 10 bbls., of the Fluid in an hour.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150,000.00!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, James P. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans, and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work, Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch, or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at MRS TEMPKINS' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.
